Letter from the Executive Director

Dear Safeline Friends,

As challenging as the past year has been in light of the pandemic, these challenges come with some positivity. Most notably, we were able to continue working with service users in person. This year, Safeline provided 2,305 services to 337 victims. While court proceedings remain virtual, the face-to-face contact Safeline staff has with those victimized by domestic or sexual violence, or stalking, offers safety and support. It's wonderful to be back in the community meeting with our supporters and service users. This summer, Safeline employees and volunteers were welcomed into schools, camps, the Chelsea Flea Market, and the weekly Chelsea Farmers Market as well as other local farmers markets. To say we're happy to see everyone in person would be an understatement! We appreciate your support as we continue to be called upon by the most vulnerable among us. Your financial, emotional, and often physical validation enables us to help those in life-threatening need.

With appreciation,
Linda Ingold
Executive Director
